THE RAILGATE FINLAND TRANSPORT CORRIDOR

The map illustrates the Railgate Finland Transport Corridor, a key international rail route. It starts in Narvik, Norway, and passes through Haparanda, Sweden, and Kouvola, Finland. From Kouvola, the route continues through St. Petersburg, Russia, and Moscow/Kaluga, then through Khorgos in Central Asia, and finally reaches Vladivostok in the Far East of Russia. Other cities shown on the map include Minsk, Beijing, Manzhouli, Lianyungang, Xi'an, Zhengzhou, Shanghai, and Hong Kong.
